that the Doorkeeper is hereby authorized to employ an additional page for the convenience of the House, and that his services be paid for out of the contingent fund of the House. Referred to the Committee on Accounts ... 186 that the seat now occupied by William F. Slemons as a member of Congress from the second congressional district of the State of Arkansas in the Forty-sixth Congress be, and the same hereby is, declared vacant. reported from the minority of the Committee on Elections ... 1392 considered and rejected ... 1970–1983, 2005–2007
that it is the sense of this House that all currency, whether metallic or paper, necessary for the use and convenience of the people, should be issued and its volume controlled by the Government, and not by or through the bank corporations of the country; and when so issued should be a full legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private.
that in the judgment of this House, that portion of the interest-bearing debt of the United States which shall become redeemable in the year 1881, or prior thereto, being in amount $782,000,000, should not be refunded beyond the power of the Government to call in said obligations and pay them at any time, but should be paid as rapidly as possible, and according to contract. To enable the Government to meet these obligations, the mints of the United States should be operated to their full capacity in the coinage of standard silver dollars, and such other coinage as the business interests of the country may require.
House refuses to suspend the rules ... 2139–2142
leave granted to print remarks on—see Appendix ... 2142
that the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby respectfully directed to report to the House of Representatives, at as early a day as possible, whether or not the Treasury department has at any time anticipated the payment of interest on the public debt, or any part thereof, as provided by joint resolution approved March 17, 1864; and, if so, for what period, to whom said interest was paid, in what amount, and whether with or without rebate. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means ... 2526
